Thirteen Hours was a very intriguing read and forced me to really focus. The characters are well defined, great detail throughout the book, and the overall story was really good. Everything in this book takes place within a thirteen hour period. The book is a long read at 584 pages, and jam-packed.

Ebook : Thirteen Hours

Thirteen Hours is a real-time novel, describing the events of one day, from 5:36 AM to 7:51 PM (which, yes, doesn't quite add up to thirteen hours -- in fact, there's also a brief sort of postscript date-stamped 22:01 (i.e. 10:01 PM) -- but most of the significant action is, indeed, squeezed into the first thirteen hours). The narrative jumps back and forth -- relatively quickly -- between ...
